Rt. Hon. Justin Trudeau, P.C., M.P.
Prime Minister of Canada
80 Wellington St
Ottawa, ON

Dear Prime Minister,

Yesterday, Mr. Justice Clément Gascon announced his retirement from the Supreme Court of Canada. As you are aware, his retirement date – September 15, 2019 – is the last day that the writ can drop prior to the next election.

I am deeply concerned that recent leaks regarding the last selection process will discourage highly qualified candidates from putting their names forward.

On March 25, a leak from your office said that you disagreed with the former Attorney General's preferred selection for the Supreme Court. The leaker made media aware of facts that only could have been known by you or someone very close to you – including your emotional state, such as a trusted friend and/or senior advisor.

In a misguided attempt at damage control, these leaks smeared the reputation and breached the privacy of the Chief Justice of the Manitoba Court of Queen's Bench Glenn Joyal. These leaks have been widely condemned by the Manitoba Bar Association, various legal groups, the Commissioner for Federal Judicial Affairs, and even your own current Minister of Justice David Lametti.

Canadians must have confidence in our justice system and its highest authority; the Supreme Court of Canada. In order to protect these institutions, you must immediately launch an inquiry into these damaging, politically motivated leaks. Until that inquiry is concluded, you must refrain from appointing a new Justice to the Supreme Court of Canada. Should you continue to refuse to open an investigation, Canadians will have no choice but to conclude that you and your advisors were complicit in these leaks.

In addition, you must ensure that members of your office who have politically interfered in judicial matters in the past, as identified by Jody Wilson-Raybould in her testimony, are not involved in the selection process of the next Justice. Specifically, I call on you to put in place an ethical screen to ensure that Katie Telford, Mathieu Bouchard and Elder Marques do not exercise any influence over Minister Lametti and are not permitted to participate in any capacity in the selection process. I would also remind you that it would be completely inappropriate for Mr. Gerald Butts, now a private citizen, to be involved in this process.

Canadians deserve no less.

Sincerely,

The Hon. Andrew Scheer, P.C., M.P.
Leader of the Official Opposition
